To Our Customers:

Enclosed are Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) covering Buffalo Abrasives, Inc. products. We are required by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration Hazard Communication Standard (29CFR1910.1200) to provide this information to our customers.

Please discard any previous editions covering the listed products which may be in your possession and replace with the enclosed sheets.

It is imperative that these MSDS be permanently maintained on file at your facility. According to the standard, they must be made available, upon request, to persons using our products. If you or your department are not responsible for these files, please forward this information accordingly.

If you have questions or require any additional information, please contact this office.

Respectfully Yours,

Jeffrey J. Binkley
